Woodward will leave Mrs. R. W. Salisbury, and Miss Anna MecCornick.

Mrs. Thomas Kearns returned yester-day morning from the Kearns ranch near Santa Rosa. She will spend the summer here and will be joined later by her two sons and her little daughter Helen.

An interesting marriage of Thursday evening was that of Miss Eunice Howes and Howard R. Irvine, which took place at the home of the groom's parents. Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Mahan, in Waterloo, The Rev. D. Hurlburt of the Second Methodist church performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of the friends of the two young people. The home was bright with quantities of the season's flowers, and the lawn was gay with strings of electric lights and lanterns. The young people will make their home in this city.

A delightful affair of yesterday afternoon was the bridge tea given by Mrs.
W. C. Applegate at her home in compliment to Miss Ethel Feil. Six tables of the game were enjoyed and a tea followed. Here the tea table was bright with pink sweet peas in a great crystal basket, while a wealth of American Beauties in tall vases decorated the other rooms. At the tea the hostess was assisted by her two cousins, the Misses Beverly and Nell Riley.

The Browning section of the Ladies' Literary club will meet today for the usual luncheon with Mrs. W. R. Hutchinson at her home on Second avenue. This will be the last meeting but one for the present year, the closing meeting of the section being held a fortnight later with Miss Lizbeth M. Qualirough at her home in the country.

Miss Lucile Francke has called a meeting of all her committees for the May dance to be held this morning at 10:30 at the home of Miss Mildred McMillan. At that time the amount cleared will be determined and all business matters relating to the affair will be finished.

A simple wedding of yesterday was that of Miss Hazel A. Redman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Redman, and Charles L. Keatley, which took place at the Phillips Congregational parsonage at 11 o'clock the Rev. P. A. Simpkin officiating. The young people left shortly after for a short wedding trip, and they will be at home to their friends at 172 Center street after June 1.

Miss Virginia Bush, who is still in the east, will remain after the close of the college year for a short visit with friends in Buffalo, returning here about the in Buffalo, re mfidle of July. returning here about
